

Update on Mystery Plane

On Wednesday, we told you that U.S. warplanes intercepted a plane that had broken off communications.

North American Aerospace Defense Command now says the pilot of the plane was unconscious. The warplanes, two F-16s, followed the plane until it crashed in the countryside in Indiana.

No one on the ground was hurt. There is no word yet on what happened to the pilot.

Source: <http://www.defenselink.mil/news/newsarticle.aspx?id=56037>