

Attack on Afghan Army

Rebels attacked an Afghan army barracks in Lashkar Gah on Friday morning.

First, gunfire came from an "empty" building near the barracks.

Later, rockets were fired from the nearby desert. (The buildings are on the edge of town.)

Afghan troops fought back, and helicopters have joined in. The main group of attackers was trapped in the empty building. There are no reports of deaths or injuries yet.

At the time the American Forces Press Service reported this, the fight was still going on.
